

Education Sunday

The 1st Reading - Philippians 4:4-9

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

The 2nd Reading - Luke 15:1-10

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them." So he told them this parable:

"Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.'~ Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. "Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Today's Psalms (Evensong) - 150

This Week @ St. Wilfrid's

A special welcome to the family and friends Laura and Nathan Davies whose daughter, Emilia Alice, will be baptised at our 10.00 a.m. service. You are all most welcome on this joyful occasion.

The September magazine is available at a cost of 50p. If you live in Mobberley you can get the magazine delivered free of charge, please contact Philippa Mort whose details are on the back page of the magazine.

Doorway continues on Thursday. We are following an exhilarating 5-week course entitled The Gift of Christ when we explore how, through our special gifts, God blesses others, both within and outside the Church.

Before we get to all the harvest celebrations we look forward to a Bike Ride on September 27th — approximately 6 km around the Parish, mostly off-road so safe for all to participate. More details are on the notice board.

If you would like to help decorate the church for Harvest please put your name down on the list by the north door.

The Harvest Flower Distribution List can also be found on the noticeboard by the north door.

Please remember in your prayers those who have died recently: Audrey Liddle, Roger Adamson, Sue Smith, Maureen Gunn, Kenneth Barker, Brenda Langford .
