

The 6th Sunday of Easter

The 1st Reading - Colossians 1:9-14

<sup>9</sup>Since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, <sup>10</sup>so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. <sup>11</sup>May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully <sup>12</sup>giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. <sup>13</sup>He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, <sup>14</sup>in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. <sup>15</sup>He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; <sup>16</sup>for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers – all things have been created through him and for him. <sup>17</sup>He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. <sup>18</sup>He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. <sup>19</sup>For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, <sup>20</sup>and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

The 2nd Reading - Matthew 28:16-end

<sup>16</sup>Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. <sup>17</sup>When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. <sup>18</sup>And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup>Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup>and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

Today's Psalm (Evensong) - 87

Her foundations are upon the / holy / hills : the Lord loveth the gates of Sion more than / all the / dwellings of / Jacob.
Very excellent things are spoken of / thee : thou / city of / God.
I will think upon / Rahab and / Babylon : with / them that / know / me.
Behold ye the / Philistines / also : and they of Tyre with the Morians, lo / there was / he / born.
And of Sion it shall be reported that he was / born in / her : and the most / High shall / stablish / her.
The Lord shall rehearse it when he writeth / up the / people : that / he was / born / there.
The singers also and trumpeters shall / he re/herse : All my fresh / springs shall / be in / thee.

This Week @ St. Wilfrid's

Alleluia, Christ is risen!
He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Welcome to everyone joining us today for the baptism of Charles Mark Taylor. Today also happens to be our service if Thanksgiving for Baptism when we remember and celebrate all those baptised here, as well as our own baptisms also.

This Thursday is Ascension Day and there shall be a service of Holy Communion in church at 7.30 p.m.

Join us this Friday for a fascinating talk on the life of 'The Other Mallory', Sir Trafford Leigh Mallory, which will take place on Friday 15th May at 7.30 p.m. Admission is £15 which includes the cost of refreshments.

This Monday the PCC shall meet at 7.45 p.m. at The Beacon. If congregation members have anything you would like to raise at PCC please speak to the Rector or Churchwardens.

This Wednesday we shall be holding our Wednesday Matinee at The Beacon. The doors open at 1.30 p.m. and the film will begin at 2.00 p.m.

Don't forget our Saturday Drop-In at The Beacon from 10-2pm, come along for tea, coffee, biscuits, toast and a warm welcome.

The May magazine is available.

Please remember in your prayers those who have died recently: Mark Henshall, Joan Moore, Andrew Thompson, Barbara Pegg and Ann Howe.
