The 17th Sunday after Trinity

The First Reading – Philippians 2.1-13

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, ² make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. ³ Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. ⁴ Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. ⁵ Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus,

⁶ who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
⁷ but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
⁸ he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.

⁹ Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name, ¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
¹¹ and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹² Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; ¹³ for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

The 2nd Reading - Matthew 21.23-32

²³ When he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, 'By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?' ²⁴ Jesus said to them, 'I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵ Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?' And they argued with one another, 'If we say, "From heaven", he will say to us, "Why then did you not believe him?" ²⁶ But if we say, "Of human origin", we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet.' ²⁷ So they answered Jesus, 'We do not know.' And he said to them, 'Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

²⁸ 'What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, "Son, go and work in the vineyard today."
²⁹ He answered, "I will not"; but later he changed his mind and went. ³⁰ The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, "I go, sir"; but he did not go.
³¹ Which of the two did the will of his father?' They said, 'The first.' Jesus said to them, 'Truly I tell you, the tax-collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. ³² For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax-collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.

Today's Psalm – 25.1-8

Unto thee O Lord will I lift up my soul, my God I have put my / trust in / thee : O let me not be confounded, neither let mine / enemies / triumph / over me.
For all they that hope in thee shall / not be a/shamed: but such as transgress without a cause / shall be / put to con/fusion.

Shew me thy / ways O / Lord : and / teach me / thy / paths.

Lead me forth in thy / truth and / learn me : for thou art the God of my salvation, in thee hath been my / hope / all the day / long.

Call to remembrance O Lord thy / tender / mercies : and thy loving-kindness, which / have been / ever of / old.

O remember not the sins and offences / of my / youth : but according to thy mercy, think thou upon me O / Lord / for thy / goodness.

Gracious and righteous / is the / Lord : therefore will he teach / sinners / in the / way.

Them that are meek shall he / guide in / judgement : and such as are gentle / them shall he / learn his / way.

This Week @ St. Wilfrid's

If you wish to join us for our Harvest Supper on Friday 2nd October please see Bridget or Jean.

Any raffle prizes to donate please see Linda.
If you can help please come to the Cricket Club at 2pm on Thursday to set up for the supper. The more the merrier. Thank you.

There will be a Harvest concert by David here in church on the 4th October at 2.30 p.m.
Everybody welcome.

This year we are asking for gifts of food which can be brought to church at any time over the Harvest weekend. These will be donated to the local foodbank.

All items are welcome but dried foodstuffs – pasta, rice, ravioli, packet pasta in sauces, tinned meats, ready made custard are especially useful.

Thank you.

Please remember in your prayers those who have died recently: Paul Constable, Ed Shannahan, Wyn Davies, and Sue Barker
