The Rector Writes

Dear Friends,

When I have been going into school these last couple of weeks I have been making the point to the children (and the Staff also) that Easter is not simply one day but is a whole season, one that last for 50 days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost. This isn't an arbitrary period but reflects the events of two thousand years ago during which Jesus met and continued to teach his disciples after his resurrection, a period that includes his ascension into heaven and the sending of the Holy Spirit.

We can only try and imagine what a time this was for those disciples. We get glimpses of them in the gospels as they run the gamut of emotions from fear, despair and confusion through to joy, hope and confidence. Those disciples, as they stood at a distance observing Jesus' crucifixion, had no idea that in just a few days time they would be rejoicing at Jesus' presence among them, and that a few weeks later they would begin their mission to turn the world upside-down.

It is the nature of darkness to overcome hope and to smother light. This is the pernicious nature of depression, not just that you feel in despair but that you cannot see, cannot imagine even, the possibility of that despair coming to an end. This is chillingly encapsulated in the words of Frodo Baggins in The Lord of the Rings when Sam asks him if he can remember the Shire and Frodo replies, 'No, Sam. I can't recall the taste of food, nor the sound of water, no memory of tree or grass or flower, no image of moon or star are left to me, I'm naked in the dark'.

But herein lies our true Easter hope for ourselves and for the whole world, a hope of which we read each and every Christmas, from the first chapter of John, 'The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.' Not that it didn't try, it had Jesus beaten, whipped and murdered in a most shameful manner and yet the light of Christ continued to shine.

May it be our prayer this Eastertide that light of Christ will continue to shine in the darkest places of this world, that those who do evil and who shun the light might be brought into the light and have their evil exposed so that the justice of God might be seen in all the earth.

Yours in Christ,
Ian.

Annual Parochial Church Meeting

The St Wilfrid's APCM will take place on Sunday 8th May following our

10.00 a.m. service. At this service we elect our Churchwardens, receive the church Annual Report, including the 2021/22 accounts, and elect people to fill the PCC membership, there are 6 posts that need filling. Four members of the PCC come to the end of their terms of office this year, Andrew Harwood, Tom Robinson, Ray

Britland, and Jo-Ann Hennerley, and I would like to thank them for their service over what has been an incredibly difficult three years.

Nomination forms for these posts are in church and we ask all members of the congregation to consider standing, it would be great if we had so many we had to hold an election as I have always believed that holding elections is a sign of a healthy church.

We also have one Deanery Synod post to fill following the resignation of David Bleakley. David and Kath have been shielding since the start of the pandemic and he now feels that this is the right time to ease back on his formal duties. Within his various roles David has served on the PCC continuously for the last 26 years and now feels the time is right to step back a little. On behalf of everyone at St. Wilfrid's I would like to thank David for the massive contribution he has made.

Each year we present an Annual Report which you can collect at the meeting which details all the things that have taken place over the previous 12 months.

Although no longer APCM business, we do need people to stand as Sidesmen and Sideswomen. Particularly after Covid the numbers of people able to do this has fallen which puts greater responsibility on those few who do. If you would like to stand as a Sidesman or Sideswomen, to greet people as they enter church and be a welcoming face to newcomers, please speak to either John H or Carole Critchley, your Churchwardens.

Ascension Day

This special day indicates that our celebration of Easter is drawing to a close. This is the day when Jesus returned to his heavenly Father after preparing his disciples for their earthly mission. In the words of R.S. Barrett

In public, in the daylight, on holy Olivet, the Lord finished with glory the career which He began in obscurity. He finished His earthly career, but not His human life. His ascension perpetuated His incarnation. He did not evacuate His human body, but carried it with Him to the right hand of God—with its nail prints and its thorn scars. Touched with a feeling of our infirmities, our great High-priest has passed into the heavens. There He ever liveth to make intercession for us. With His pierced hands He is able to save to the uttermost them that come unto God by Him.

We celebrate the Ascension of our Lord with a sung service of Holy Communion on Thursday 26th May at 7.30 p.m.

Our Messy Church meets on the 28th May at 10.00 a.m. at The Beacon when we shall be looking forward to the Feast of the Holy Trinity on the 12th June.

As an abstract concept, the Holy Trinity is a difficult subject to explain to adults, never mind children, which is why the Church has developed a number of tangible, if limited, ways of describing it, from St. Patrick's shamrock to water existing as a solid, liquid and gas.

These illustrations only go so far as we seek to make the main point, that the Holy Trinity is about a community of love into which those who follow Jesus are called and joyfully received.

Memorial Service

Up until the chaos of the pandemic we held an annual Memorial Service at which we remembered, and lit and candle for, those who had there funeral at St. Wilfrid's in the previous year. Amongst those remembered are dear members of our own church community here at St. Wilfrid's and so year we will be remembering Gordon Smith, Paul Underhill, Jean McKenzie, George Eland and Ron Whild.

We always hold this service within our Easter celebrations as we recall them with love but also with a living hope in the promises of our Lord Jesus who taught, "And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day."

Our Memorial Service will take place on Tuesday 24th May at 7.30 p.m. in church.

Concert in Church

We are delighted to welcome to St. Wilfrid's for the first time, the small choral group 'Ensemble 47' for a concert. Their programme will be presenting a varied repertoire of glorious music by Buxtehude, Hayes, Duruflé, Gjeilo, Rusby and others.

Tickets cost £7.50 which includes the cost of refreshments and all the profits raised will go to support St. Wilfrid's Church so do come and join us for what promises to be a wonderful night of entertainment.

Platinum Jubilee

There are a number of events planned locally to mark the Queen's Platinum Jubilee celebrations over the first weekend of June. Our contribution to this will be a service of Songs of Praise in church on Sunday 5th June at 6.30 p.m. Each hymn is taken from some of the most momentous services in her life time, from VE Day through her Wedding and Coronation services up to her Silver and Gold Jubilees.

We shall also have readings, both Biblical and otherwise, that reflect on her reign as our Queen over 70 years.

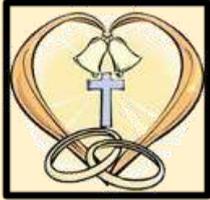

Do come and join us for this special Jubilee service.
